1.0 The Service

1.1 The Lombard Internet Banking Service is available from the Bank Website, and gives the User the facility to, inter alia:

- conduct enquiries on Accounts;
- submit Instructions for transactions such as, but not necessarily limited to, inter Account transfers, third party transfers and bill payments;
- submit other Instructions such as, but not necessarily limited to, renewals of and modifications to term deposit Accounts;
- make use of the Mailbox.

1.2 Instructions for transactions or otherwise effected through the Service shall be legally binding.

2.0 General Matters

2.1 These IB Terms and Conditions, as well as any other part of the Agreement apply to the use of the Lombard Internet Banking Service.

2.2 The Bank recommends that these IB Terms and Conditions and any other parts of the Agreement, be read carefully and that they be reviewed periodically.

2.3 The Service being offered to the Customer is governed by these IB Terms and Conditions, by any other part of the Agreement and by such other terms and conditions, security notices, disclaimers and any other rules of use that may be made available to the User through the Mailbox, the Bank Website or any of the Bank's branches.

2.4 Any existing terms and conditions, rules, policies etc. other than these IB Terms and Conditions and any other part of the Agreement (together with any amendments or additional terms and conditions, rules, policies etc which may be brought into force from time to time) governing the Service, shall, in so far as is applicable, continue to remain effective with respect thereto together with these IB Terms and Conditions.

- 2.5 Should these IB Terms and Conditions or any other part of the Agreement modify, cancel or limit the Bank's liability, or affect or limit the Customer's rights in any way, this shall only be so to the maximum extent permitted by law.
 - 2.6 The Agreement shall become binding as soon as the Bank has accepted the Customer's Application, and upon receipt by the Customer of the Login ID and the Security Token. From that time onwards the Customer and the Bank must comply with these IB Terms and Conditions.
 - 2.7 The Bank maintains strict security standards and procedures with a view to preventing unauthorised access to Customer data. The Bank uses leading technologies such as (but not limited to) data encryption, firewalls and server authentication to protect the security of all data.
 - 2.8 The Bank shall take reasonable precautions to protect and keep confidential any information that is communicated with the User. The Bank shall not be liable for any unauthorised access that may occur to such information during transmission. Furthermore once the information has reached the User's Computer, it is up to the User to protect it.
 - 2.9 Upon acceptance by the Bank of the Customer's Application and upon receipt by the Customer of the Login ID and the Security Token, another Security Token and Login ID may also be issued by the Bank to any Designated User in terms of these IB Terms and Conditions.
 - 2.10 The Customer shall be liable under these IB Terms and Conditions not only for his own actions or omissions, but also for those of any Designated User.
- 3.0 Security Token
- 3.1 The Security Token shall generate the Security Code for entry by the User whenever the Service so requests.
 - 3.2 The right to use the Security Token which the Bank issues to the User is governed by these IB Terms and Conditions and by any other part of the Agreement. This right is exclusive to the User and is not transferable.
 - 3.3 All Security Tokens shall be activated upon insertion of the Security Token PIN.
 - 3.4 Security Token shall remain property of the Bank and must be returned upon demand. Upon the Bank's demand for the return of a Security Token, the User must discontinue using it.
 - 3.5 The Bank reserves the right to levy a charge for the supply of a Security Token. All charges are specified in the Bank's Tariff of Charges, as may be in force from time to time, available from all the Bank's branches.
- 4.1 Login ID, Security Token PIN and Security Code
- 4.2 The Login ID shall be advised to the user by means of a letter which should be destroyed after the Login ID is memorised.
 - 4.3 The User shall comply with all guidelines for keeping the Login ID and Security Token PIN secure. The manner in which these guidelines are adopted and implemented by the User shall be considered in the determination of the Customer's liability for any loss arising from third party misuse of the User's Login ID and Security Token PIN.
 - 4.4 The User shall NOT:-
 - inform nor allow anyone to find out the Login ID and/or
 - Security Token PIN;
 - allow anyone to view entry of the Login ID and/or Security Token PIN at time of login, such as by ensuring that there are no security cameras, mirrors or any other means of observing entries made;
 - leave the computer unattended while accessing the service and shall always logout of the service after completing access and use;
 - leave anything behind after accessing and using the Service that could reveal the Login ID and/or Security Token PIN.
 - 4.5 The Login ID and Security Token PIN should always be memorised.
 - 4.6 The Bank shall verify the authenticity of the Login ID and Security Code of the User but is unable to verify the identity or authority of the person as well as the validity or correctness in accessing or using the Lombard Internet Banking Service.
 - 4.7 The User shall notify the Bank immediately if he becomes aware that his Security Token has been misused, lost or stolen or he is aware or suspects that someone else has or may have knowledge of his Login ID and/or Security Token PIN. Upon notification, the Bank shall take those measures deemed appropriate.
 - 4.8 Subject to these IB Terms and Conditions and any other part of the Agreement, if the User fails or delays in notifying the Bank of the misuse, loss or theft of his Security Token and/or Login ID and/or Security Token PIN, he shall be liable for any access to and use of the Service resulting from such misuse, loss or theft.
- 5.0 Limitations of Liability
- 5.1 The Bank treats any access to and use of the Service as authorised unless, prior to such access and use, the Customer has instructed the Bank to cancel a User's Security Token and Login ID.
 - 5.2 The Customer shall be liable for any loss arising out of an unauthorised access to or use of the Service.
 - 5.3 A Customer shall not be liable for any loss arising out of unauthorised access to and use of the Service when:
 - a. access to and use of the Service happen after the User has notified the Bank and the Bank acknowledges receipt, in accordance with these IB Terms and Conditions, that the Security Token has been misused, lost or stolen or that the security of the Security Token and/or Login ID has been breached; or
 - access to and use of the Service happen before any User has received their Hardware Token and Login ID or replacement Hardware Token or Login ID;
 - the unauthorised access and use of the Service is caused by either fraudulent or negligent conduct of any of the Bank's staff or agents.
 - 5.4 If any unauthorised person appears to have accessed or used or attempted to access or use the Service, the Bank may disclose any relevant information to such law enforcement, governmental or other authorities as it considers appropriate and within the limits permitted by law.
 - 5.5 Except as provided for by clause 5.3, the Customer undertakes to keep indemnified at all times and free from all actions, proceedings, claims, damages, losses, charges, expenses (including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses) which the Bank may incur, directly or indirectly, however occasioned, by reason of complying with the User's Instructions. Furthermore, the Customer agrees to ratify any action taken by the Bank pursuant to any such Instructions given through the Service.
 - 5.6 In fulfilling its obligations arising from laws and regulations relating to money laundering, terrorist financing and sanctions, the Bank may take any action it deems appropriate or reasonable. In so doing the Bank shall not be liable for any loss or damage of any type, however occasioned, that may be suffered by the Customer or by any third party.
 - 5.7 The Bank shall not be liable for any delays in the performance of any of its obligations under these IB Terms and Conditions due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to fire, war, riot, civil unrest, government action, strikes, lock-outs or other industrial action or trade disputes (whether involving the Bank's employees or those of a third party), unexpected malfunctioning of computer systems, telephony or data communication, acts of any civil or military authority, judicial actions, acts of God, or other casualty or natural calamity for so long as and to the extent that, the effects of such circumstances continue.

6.0 Execution of Instructions

- 6.1 The Bank shall consider every Instruction received through the Service as an Instruction authorised by the Customer, and this notwithstanding and superseding any other mandate which the Customer may have previously given to the Bank.
- 6.2 Instructions made through the Service shall be processed in accordance with the Bank's regular business processes and procedures and may be limited to certain amounts established by the Bank from time to time.
- 6.3 The Bank reserves the right to change, at any point in time, the daily minimum or maximum amounts that may be withdrawn from an Account by virtue of the Service.
- 6.4 Instructions given after Cut-off Time on a Business Day, or made on a day which is not a Business Day, may be processed on the next Business Day. However, the Bank may vary Cut-off Times at any time.
- 6.5 The Bank may, at any time and without notice to the User, block the use of a Login ID or Security Token if it is believed that such Login ID or Security Token is being used in such a way that may cause losses to the Customer or to the Bank.
- 6.6 The Bank may, at any time and at its absolute discretion, refuse to execute any Instructions and/or provide any information and/or provide the Service to the User.
- 6.7 The Bank shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Account information available through the Service is correct and updated regularly, however the Bank shall not be responsible for any loss suffered by the Customer where information is inaccurate for reasons beyond the control of the Bank.
- 6.8 Unless an Instruction exceeds a limit, or unless it is suspected that there may be a breach of security measures or an infringement of these IB Terms and Conditions, the Bank shall, in most cases, act upon Instructions, in so far as it is, in the Bank's opinion, not suspicious, practicable and reasonable to do so.
- 6.9 Care must be exercised when transferring funds from the Customer's Account. The Bank is unable to verify account details of the receiving account. If a User discovers that a payment or transfer was made in error or for the wrong amount, the User must seek recourse from the recipient, as the Bank cannot reverse or modify such transactions. In these cases, the User may seek the Bank's assistance for a return of funds. A charge may be applicable for such a service.
- 6.10 The exchange rate used for any Instruction in foreign currency shall be the currency exchange rate valid at the time of processing.
- 6.11 The Bank reserves the right to suspend all or any functionality which requires the use of an exchange rate if there are valid reasons for doing so, including but not limited to a volatile foreign exchange market.

7.0 Account Information

- 7.1 The Bank shall, unless advised to the contrary, continue to send Account statements to the Customer's mailing address as per the terms and conditions, in force from time to time, of that particular type of Account.
- 7.2 A record of Instructions carried out through the Service should be retained by the Customer to allow verification of statement transactions. All transactions shall be confirmed for accuracy upon receipt of the statement.
- 7.3 The date appearing on the record of certain instructions may vary from the date appearing on the Account statement because certain transactions completed on a specific day may be held over to be processed on the next Business Day.

- 7.4 Disagreement with any transaction effected through the Service shall be brought to the Bank's attention within 24 hours from the date when the transaction was processed on the Account.

8.0 Joint Accounts

- 8.1 Where the Account is a Joint Account, 'Customer' shall be deemed to mean all and each of the parties to the Joint Account who shall be jointly and severally liable for all the Instructions given through the Service.
- 8.2 All parties to the Joint Account must consent to the operation of the Account through the Service in accordance with the Application.
- 8.3 Any such consent shall, for the purposes of the Service, prevail over any other existing arrangements that may apply to the operation of the Joint Account.

9.0 Cancelling and/or modifying the Service

- 9.1 Where the Customer wishes to cancel or modify access to and use of the Service, he must notify one of the Bank's branches in writing.
- 9.2 Until notification is received in terms of 9.1, the Customer may request the Bank to block access to and use of the Service by the User.

10.0 Charges

- 10.1 The Bank reserves the right to levy charges for the provision of the Service, including but not limited to charges for the issue, use, reissue or replacement of a Security Token or Login ID.
- 10.2 All charges are specified in the Bank's Tariff of Charges, as may be in force from time to time, and are available from all the Bank's branches.
- 10.3 Charges related to the provision of the Service shall be debited to the Accounts. If there are insufficient funds in such selected Account/s, the Bank retains the right to settle amounts due through any other of the Customer's Accounts, if any. Should there be no Account which may be debited, the Service shall be suspended until funds are available or payment is settled.

11.0 Continuity of the Service

- 11.1 The Service is delivered to the User over the internet. Given the nature of the Service, the Bank has no control over delays or time lags which may result in the transmission of communication over this medium and does not warrant that access to the Service shall be uninterrupted, timely or error free.
- 11.2 The Bank or any member of the Bank's staff cannot warrant or represent that the Service is free from viruses or other destructive features which may adversely affect the Customer's hardware, software or equipment.
- 11.3 The Bank shall take all reasonable measures to ensure that the Service is operational. The Bank shall not be liable if any User's Login ID, Security Token or Security Token PIN does not launch the Service and/or the Service does not accept Instructions from the User.
- 11.4 The Bank shall not be liable to the Customer or to any third party for any modification, suspension or discontinuance of the Service where this occurs for reasons beyond the control of the Bank.
- 11.5 Every endeavour shall be made by the Bank to ensure continuity of the Service and to give notice of suspensions. Nevertheless, in cases of an emergency, the Bank shall not be required to give notice of suspensions.

12.0 Notification, Complaint, Resolution & Investigation

- 12.1 The Bank should be notified and contacted from Monday to Friday (excluding Public Holiday and Bank Holidays) as follows:

1st October to 14th June

8.00am to 4.30pm

15th June to 30th September 8.00am to 2.30pm

- Phone: +356 25581789
- Fax: +356 2558 1750
- e-mail: css@lombardmalta.com

The Bank shall acknowledge receipt of any such notification.

12.2 If a complaint cannot be resolved immediately, the Customer may call at one of the Bank's branches, preferably the branch where the Account is held.

12.3 The Customer may be asked to complete a written statement and/or form with respect to the complaint.

12.4 The Bank shall investigate and, where appropriate and necessary, take appropriate action to rectify. The Customer shall be advised of the final outcome.

12.5 The Customer may also direct complaints through: Office of the Arbiter for Financial Services,

1st Floor, St. Calcedonius Square, Floriana FRN 1530. Malta

Freephone: 8007 2366 Telephone (+356) 2124 9245 or by email on: complaint.info@financialarbiter.org.mt

13.0 Variations, Modifications and Alterations to the Agreement

13.1 The Bank reserves the right to vary, modify and alter the Agreement at any given time.

13.2 The Customer shall be notified through the Mailbox, and/or through the Bank Website and/or through any of the Bank's branches. The Customer shall be deemed to have received such notification from the Bank as soon as they have been made available as aforesaid.

13.3 Unless otherwise advised to the contrary, the Bank shall normally give a reasonable notice of 30 days to the Customer. This notice period may be shorter due to circumstances beyond the control of the Bank. In such instances, the customer will be notified to this effect. Continued use of the Service on or after the effective date of any such variation, modification or alteration shall be deemed to be an acceptance of the Agreement as varied, modified or altered, and shall be binding upon the Customer.

14.0 Suspension or Termination of the Service

14.1 The Bank reserves the right to suspend or terminate the Service for reasons valid at law. The Bank shall give reasonable notice of suspension or termination.

14.2 The Bank may also, at its absolute discretion and with immediate effect and without giving prior notice, suspend or terminate the Service should the Bank consider that an activity has occurred which:

- constitutes fraudulent access to and use of the Service, or an attempt thereof;
- goes against regular Banking rules and regulations, Bank policy, or is otherwise illegal;
- may seriously impinge upon the relationship between the Customer and the Bank.

In such cases, the Bank shall not be obliged to specify the precise nature of its concerns, but may simply make reference to this clause.

14.3 The Customer may terminate access to or use of the Service at any time by giving prior reasonable notice in writing. All Security Tokens must be returned to the Bank immediately.

14.4 Upon termination, the Customer must pay the Bank any outstanding charges due by the debit of any of the Customer's Accounts held with the Bank. Charges related to the provision of the Service shall be debited to the Customer's Account. If there are insufficient funds in such selected Account, the Bank retains the right to settle amounts due through any other of the Customer's Accounts, if any.

14.5 Unless stated otherwise, suspension or termination of the Service shall not in any way otherwise affect the relationship of the Customer with the Bank.

15.0 Copyright

15.1 The Service is subject to copyright legislation and no part may be reproduced or used in an abusive or illegal way.

16.0 Data Protection

16.1 Any data shall be processed by the Bank in accordance with Data Protection Legislation and the Bank's Data Protection Notice.

16.2 The Customer is aware that the nature of the Service requires that confidential information be exchanged between the Bank and the User. The effective provision of the Service requires that the Bank may process, share or transmit information about the Customer and/or his Account within the Bank, to any one or more of the Bank's principals, subsidiaries, associates and agents, including third parties whether operating in Malta or abroad, with whom there are existing processing agreements and who are all bound by confidentiality agreements.

16.3 The Bank shall process any data for a number of purposes, including but not limited to the provision of the Service, the accessibility to and management of Accounts, the detection and prevention of money laundering activities, fraud and other criminal activity and for the development and improvement of the Bank's services and products.

16.4 Should the User, by virtue of the Service, obtain in any manner whatsoever, unauthorised access to any programs, data, or any other information belonging to the Bank or otherwise, he shall treat such programs, data or information as confidential, he shall not make any use thereof and he must report such access to the Bank immediately.

16.5 The User shall inform the Bank immediately of any changes to his data.

17.0 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

17.1 These Terms and Conditions are regulated by the relevant provisions of the Laws of Malta. Any disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Maltese courts or to any tribunal at the Malta Arbitration Centre. The submission by the account holder to jurisdiction as above shall not be construed so as to exclude the right of the Bank to take legal action arising out of or in connection with this account in whatever jurisdiction it may deem fit.

17.2 The Service is designed for use in Malta and is not directed to, nor intended for distribution or use by any person or entity in any jurisdiction or country where the publication or availability of the Service or such distribution or use would be contrary to other laws or regulations.

18.0 Severability

18.1 Each of the clauses of the Agreement is severable from the others, and if at any time any one or more of such clauses, not being of a fundamental nature, is or becomes illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforcement of the remaining clauses of the Agreement shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

Interested customers may collect an official version of these terms and conditions from any one of our branches.
